

Agustí Toll is responsible for the Dermatologic Surgery Unit in the department of Dermatology, Hospital Clínic, Barcelona. He develops research work in the field of cutaneous epithelial carcinogenesis and the molecular bases of primary and metastatic skin squamous carcinoma. Since 2019, he has coordinated the Catalan non-melanoma skin cancer network.