

Prof. Brigitte Dréno is Dermato-Oncologist, Chairman of the GMP Unit of Cell and Gene Therapy in University Hospital Nantes France. She is also Vice President to the Scientific and technical Culture of the University of Nantes France She leads a research team (INSERM Unit U892) focused on melanoma, cutaneous adverse events and anti-Cancer drugs and cutaneous microbiome and acne .

She is Founder member of the European Association of Dermato Oncology, past president of the French Society of Dermatology and French college of dermatology teachers, Treasurer of the International League of Dermatological Societies (ILDS), Chair of the Programming Committee of EADV. In addition, member of AAD, ADA, International Society for Cutaneous Lymphomas, Skin Cancer Foundation. She has published over 600 articles referenced in PubMed, participated to the redaction of chapters of several books.

She is an Editorial Board Member of JEADV, Acta Dermatology, European Journal of Cancer Prevention and International Journal of women's Dermatology.. She has obtained several awards such as the Award of ILDS, the Price of the International Society for Cutaneous Lymphomas, the Price of the French victories of medicine. She has been granted to the grade of Chevalier of the Order of the Legion of Honour by the President of the French Republic as well as Chevalier in the Order of Academic Palms of Nantes' s University and as been elected recently member of the French Academy of Medecine.