

Professor Cristina Carrera (1975, Vigo, Spain) MD PhD. Dermatologist at the Hospital Clínic de Barcelona, Doctor in Medicine and Professor at the University of Barcelona. Expert in nevi, melanoma and non-melanoma skin cancer, special interest in dermatological adverse events of oncologic therapies and imaging techniques in dermatology. Accredited by the UEMS and EADO as an expert in diagnosis and medical treatment in Dermato-Oncology.

Tutor of Residents of the Hospital Clínic and vice president of the National Commission of Medical-Surgical Dermatology and Venereology of the Ministry of Health (Spain). Co-author of more than 150 original scientific publications, 19 book chapters, and co-editor of an Atlas of Confocal Microscopy. Principal investigator of a competitive project (Instituto de Salud Carlos III (Ministry of Economy and Industry, Spain) focused in Large and Giant Congenital Nevi.