

Lara Ferrándiz Pulido, MD, pHD

Has more than 15 years of experience in Dermatology and is currently responsible for the Melanoma Unit of the Hospital Universitario Virgen Macarena. She specializes in the diagnosis and treatment of skin cancer and has extensive experience in the medical and surgical approach of patients with melanoma.

Dr. Ferrándiz has been an Associate Professor of the Faculty of Medicine of the University of Seville since 2012. In addition, she collaborates as a teacher in different Masters, Expert Degrees and Dermatology courses. Dr. Ferrándiz has extensive experience in research and innovation, and she is the principal investigator of numerous innovation projects as well as the owner of patents and intellectual property registries. She has recently been recognized with the Losada Villasante Award in Research and Innovation (VII edition) for the project "Transformation of the healthcare model of access to care in Dermatology through the use of information and communication technologies.