

Mariano Suppa is an Associate Professor of Dermatology at the Université Libre de Bruxelles in Brussels, Belgium, and currently serves as:

- vice-president of the non-invasive skin imaging group of the Société Française de Dermatologie (GICNI-SFD);
- member of the Communication Committee of the European Academy of Dermatology and Venereology (EADV);
- member of the EUROMELANOMA Prevention Campaign Organizing Committee; and
- member of the “Hidradenitis Suppurativa Global Alliance” Expert Group.

After his medical studies in Italy, France, and UK, he subsequently got his PhD at the Université Libre de Bruxelles (Brussels, Belgium). His main clinical/research interests are non-invasive skin imaging, dermato-oncology, skin cancer prevention, hidradenitis suppurativa, epidemiology and biostatistics.