

Dr. Celia Requena Caballero. Department of Dermatology. IVO. Valencia, Spain.

celiareq@hotmail.com

Medical studies at Facultad de Medicina de Oviedo. Asturias. Spain, with extraordinary prize upon graduation and extraordinary prize of her degree. Second National Prize upon graduation in Medicine. PhD degree with Magna cum laude in Universidad Autónoma of Madrid, Spain. Dermatology residency in Department of Dermatology, Valencia, Spain. Member of the Spanish groups of Dermatopathology and Dermatologic Surgery and Oncology. She works as dermatologist at Instituto Valenciano de Oncología from Valencia, Spain, where she is responsible for the management of patients with non-melanoma and melanoma skin cancer, with long experience with Mohs surgery for 18 years, and with special interest in Dermatopathology, spitzoid tumors, lentigo maligna, angiosarcoma and paraneoplastic syndromes. She is author of 295 published articles, 44 of them as first author. She has more than a hundred communications in congresses. She is co-director and teacher of the Master in Oncologic Dermatology (ADEIT) in Valencia, Spain.