

Harald Kittler

Ao. Prof. of Dermatology at the Department of Dermatology, Medical University of Vienna, in Vienna/Austria with a special clinical interest in dermatoscopy and a specialisation in dermatopathology.

The main research interests are digital dermatoscopy, follow-up of pigmented skin lesions and computer assisted diagnosis. Dr. Kittler has been working for 25 years in the field of dermatoscopy and has published more than 200 scientific articles.